

Bombs Away!

A quick-witted water balloon game

Number of players: 2 - 4 players

Duration: 10-15 minutes

How to play: Instruct one child to sit down on the grass. Tell another child to grab a water balloon and climb up above the child who is sitting on the grass. You can use a tree, ladder, dome climber or other playground equipment to do this. Just make sure it is safe. Then, tell the child on the ground that they have 20 seconds to name 10 items from a given category. If they can't name at least 10 items before the timer goes off, the child above gets to pop a water balloon onto his or her head!

Category ideas:

- Cold cereals
- Candybars
- Animals that start with S
- Animated movies
- Disney characters
- Ice cream flavors
- Boy names
- Girl names
- States or countries
- Board games
- Sports
- Fruits or vegetables
- Celebrities
- Marvel characters
- Soda brands
- Languages
- Last names that start with J

Game variation: Instead of just one child sitting on the ground and one above, you can have two on the grass and two up above. Whichever child on the grass names ten items from the chosen category last, gets the water balloon dropped on the them. Repeat as many times as you would like.
